

OHSAS HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy and intention of management to recognise and accept the importance of health, Safety and Welfare in respect of its own staff and others who might be affected by workplace activities. As such the company will actively pursue and encourage every member of the company to participate in the Management of Health & Safety in order to achieve and maintain the highest practical standard of accident prevention, continual improvement in OH&S management and performance, and the prevention of injury and ill health..

Top management share a common commitment to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the Health, Safety and Welfare of its employees and those under its control, and the activities carried out by its employees and those directly under its control are carried out, so far as is reasonably practicable, in such a manner so as not to expose them or other person not in their direct employment, from risks to their Health and Safety and comply with applicable legal requirements and with other such requirements to with JJ Kelly (Builders) Ltd subscribe

Top management are committed to achieving continued improvement in its Health & Safety endeavors and believes that the development of Management Safe systems and management procedures will assist in the long-term development of the companies Health & Safety Standards. Objectives are reviewed and established at least annually at the management review.

The health & safety policy shall:

- a) be appropriate to the nature and scale of the companies OH&S risks
- b) be committed to continual improvement
- c) be committed to at least comply with current applicable OH&S legislation and with other requirements to which the organization subscribes
- d) be documented, implemented and maintained
- e) be communicated to all employees with the intent that employees are made aware of their individual OHSAS obligations
- f) be available to interested parties and
- g) be reviewed periodically to ensure that it remains relevant and appropriate to the organisation

MANAGING DIRECTOR

John Kelly